of interest to every reader of The Intelligencer will be a splendid letter received by Jas. D. Hammett, chairman of the executive committee of the chamber of commerce, written by A. W. Anderson, general manager of the Charleston & Western Carolina rallway. The letter deals with the recent trip made to Anderson by this distinguished railroad man and because of the philosophy and wisdom contained therein is reproduced in full:

"I am not only greatly pleased, but profoundly greatful for the cordial resolutions conveyed to me in your letter of the 5th.

resolutions conveyed to me in your letter of the 5th.

"Itmakes me feel that there is nothing that I would not do to show my appreciation of such cordial words and evidences, of a bone of sympathy, which to my mind is absolutely necessary if four railroads are to success. Sary if four success, and it say if without fear of successful contradiction, depends the prosperity of the country served by them.

"Unfortunately we deal with so many people and with so many questions involving claims, facilities and numerous other things that even though we may dispose readily of ninety-five per cent, that the remaining like gradually extends to nearly everybody, with the rusuit, if nothing more, that it causes a lack of confidence, and opinion that we are unfair; in fact, avaracious.
